AFFIDAVIT OF MARQUITA HAYNES

I, Marquita Haynes, under penalty of perjury, state as follows:

1. I am the older sister of Marvin Haynes.
2. In May 2004, I was living with our mother, Sharon Shipp, at 3334 Russell Avenue North in Minneapolis. Marvin was living there as well.
3. On Sunday, May 16, 2004, I remember our sister Marvinna came over that morning because Marvin had taken her shoes. She woke him up, and they had an argument.
4. I was hanging out around the house that day and did not go to church with my sisters Sharita and Cynthia.
5. As best I can remember, Marvin went back to sleep after Marvinna left and slept for a while before finally getting up for the day.
6. Our mother was also at the house that day. Unfortunately, she had a stroke that left her unable to speak. She lives with me now. At this point, she cannot communicate at all except through a few basic hand signs.
7. Marvin struggled with reading and writing back in 2004. He was not good in school. He spoke very informally with lots of slang, not like some who was educated.

I declare under penalty of perjury that everything I have stated in this document is true and correct.

FURTHER YOUR AFFIANT SAITH NOT,

Marquita Haynes
