AFFIDAVIT OF SHARITA HARRIS

I, Sharita Harris, under penalty of perjury, state as follows:

1. I am the older sister of Marvin Haynes. In 2004, I went by the name Sharita Coleman.
2. In May 2004, I was living with our mother, Sharon Shipp, at 3334 Russell Avenue North in Minneapolis. Marvin was also living there at the time.
3. At the time, I attended North Community Missionary Baptist Church in Minneapolis. On Sundays, I would be picked up at home and given a ride to church by someone from the church.
4. I remember that on Sunday, May 16, 2004, our ride was running late. They eventually picked my sister Cynthia and me up for church sometime around 10:30 a.m.
5. I remember our sister Marvinia coming over that morning before we left for church. She was angry at Marvin for taking her sneakers. She woke Marvin up. They argued for a bit, and then Marvin went back to bed. He was in bed when we left for church.
6. At that time, Marvin was struggling in school. He was not especially well-spoken. He spoke very informally and used a lot of slang. No one who spoke with him would have concluded that he was educated.
7. I expected to testify in Marvin's trial, but I was never called to testify. I do not know why.

I declare under penalty of perjury that everything I have stated in this document is true and correct.
