

2021-12-10 National meeting post demo

These recordings were taken by an anonymous source inside of Patriot Front during August to December 2021. Unicorn Riot has produced transcript PDFs, MP3s and videos from this set of recordings. The transcripts and the Mp3s use the same set of timecodes. The main report on our website uses separate timecodes that match our videos, which are lightly edited to remove silence, with an additional introduction and credits.

The .mp3 files (as opposed to slightly shortened videos) represent the uncut documentation of these Patriot Front voice meetings. These uncut audio files have been altered as little as possible in the interests of source protection.

Accuracy of transcripts and speaker identities

Unicorn Riot has done our best to compile transcripts with the most accurate time stamps and speaker identifications possible. Due to the combination of machine transcription and extensive human labor, there may be occasional errors in speaker IDs indicated in transcripts. but we are confident that the vast majority of the speaker IDs and content are correct. Some transcript timestamps are incorrect due to unavoidable issues with using machine transcription at scale, however, the majority are accurate.

Please note that these recordings may include Patriot Front members whose voices were not identified by us. When we were unsure about a speaker's identity we have left that line in the transcript without an assigned name, which machine transcription services usually tag as 'Unknown'. Many Patriot Front members have been identified by researchers, activists and journalists by linking multiple pieces of evidence to online personas.

I'm playing Hearts of Iron, what country should I play as?

Latvia.

00:30

That's so fucked up from them, from what I've tried it's like pretty fucking hard to turn that fascist.

Thomas Rousseau 00:36

Language....

00:38

Sorry, Tommy.

00:39

Uh, didn't Poland get a bunch of updates in the latest patch?

00:49

Yes.

00:51

[Inaudible]

00:51

I mean, Thomas told you [inaudible]

00:55

I mean...

Thomas Rousseau 00:56

Let's not chit chat about video games please.

00:59

Thomas.

Thomas Rousseau 01:01

Hello.

01:01

[Inaudible] all be, someone from Network 4 will be on my phone, we're, a lot of us are hanging out but there's not much service so we'll see who all can get on here individually.

Thomas Rousseau 01:12

Do your thing, do your best, [inaudible] or all, if anything should be said in the next 10 minutes, let's try to keep it to that which is very important, pertinent, relevant, important and so on, so, yes because [inaudible] pressing questions.

01:33

Hey William Texas, hop into meeting room one for me for one second.

Thomas Rousseau 03:12

Everyone, we're, reminder, questions to be asked during the meeting or during the parts where I call out for questions are going by, are going to be a matter of someone sending me a direct message and then I will answer your question and/or read the question out loud. This is so that we don't have 10 people trying to speak their question at once, since I can't see if you have your hand raised. So remember, when I call for questions at the end of each segment of the meeting, I have a number of announcements to make, and after which I will call for questions if there, if there is something to be questioned about it. And then you can send me your question in a direct message and then I will respond so that everyone can hear me and the question if that is pertinent. Thank you.

You're welcome.

04:11

What's up, Rex?

Rex VT (Ryan Roy) 04:14

Howdy, partner. Glad to see you. Y'all make me proud.

04:29

We missed you, Rex.

Rex VT (Ryan Roy) 04:32

I missed all of y'all.

04:36

Feedback.

04:37

I think, I think that was the first big event [inaudible] that was Rex was...

Rex VT (Ryan Roy) 04:43

it was a, you know, it was not for lack of want, certainly.

04:48

No, I know.

Rex VT (Ryan Roy) 04:51

I was, I was eagerly awaiting any, any news I could, I could get.

05:10

How are your young ones, Rex?

Rex VT (Ryan Roy) 05:14

Well who's that?

05:17

No, your kids?

Rex VT (Ryan Roy) 05:19

Oh my kids? My kids are great. Beyond my, my, actually my oldest son, he just had to have [inaudible]...

05:29

Have what?

Rex VT (Ryan Roy) 05:30

Sorry, my oldest son whose birthday it was this past weekend. He just had to have a tooth removed today and he was complimented and we got many compliments from the staff.

05:47

I'm moving in, one second

05:51

What's going on boys?

05:55

Greetings.

Thomas Rousseau 05:57

Good evening, Patrick.

06:00

'Sup, Pat?

06:03

What's good?

06:30

That's good to hear your son passed one of his first hurdles with flying colors.

Rex VT (Ryan Roy) 06:36

Oh man, he did awesome, like, yeah, his behavior was excellent, he was very polite, he was not scared, you know, he was [inaudible]

06:47

[Inaudible] sorry, sorry, sorry.

Rex VT (Ryan Roy) 06:52

No, he's good.

06:54

The apple don't fall far from the tree, brave like his father.

07:05

Apple don't fall far from the tree, he's a brave man like his father.

Rex VT (Ryan Roy) 07:10

Hey, thanks brother. It really means a lot to me, truly. I hope he can be, you know, you know, you know, more than, than why, that's, you know, really what I hope for him and really what I try, you know. Everything I'm orienting my life towards now, you know, including through Patriot Front, is you know, I want to try to like round myself out as a man to be able to like you know, help him to be you know, the best, the best man that he can be, to be better than me.

07:38

Yeah.

07:53

Texas, what's up big dawg?

Billy Merse TX 07:55

How's everyone doing tonight?

Rex VT (Ryan Roy) 07:58

Hi Billy.

08:00

Fantastic.

08:00

Hey Billy.

Rex VT (Ryan Roy) 08:05

Hand over your [inaudible]

08:09

About what? What's up?

08:12

Whatever you got.

08:14

What's Texas like, Billy?

Billy Merse TX 08:17

It's warmer than it should be right now [inaudible] might change tomorrow.

08:23

[Inaudible] you're in Ohio.

08:24

Would you like a donation of snow?

08:28

Oh, I miss the snow, boys.

Billy Merse TX 08:30

I don't know what snow is but I'll take some.

08:33

It's stupid warm right now, dude. It's almost mid-December down here in Texas.

Billy Merse TX 08:37

And like, I walk out the door at like 6:30 a.m. it's already fucking like 80 degrees out.

08:41

[Inaudible] you know it snows. You had like a week of snow.

Billy Merse TX 08:47

Yeah, I was out of power for five days.

08:49

[Inaudible]

Johnny MN (Trevor Valescu) 08:50

Yeah you guys turned into frickin Minnesota for like [inaudible.]

08:54

I went camping down by Houston when that Big Freeze happened.

08:58

Johnny, we turned it into what?

Johnny MN (Trevor Valescu) 09:01

You turned into Minnesota for good long minute there.

09:04

Minnesota.

09:06

Yeah, yeah, I know it.

09:07

Oh...

Christopher AL 09:09

It is a party in here. Damn.

Vincent TX (Kyle Morelli) 09:11

Hey, Thomas.

James TX 09:14

Your accent, how's that feel?

Thomas Rousseau 09:18

Okay, everybody stop talking. Vincent. Go ahead.

Vincent TX (Kyle Morelli) 09:23

I'm gonna move everybody into six. They're automatically muted [inaudible]

Thomas Rousseau 09:26

Negative. We are going to be making some appointments and I want applause.

Vincent TX (Kyle Morelli) 09:30

Okay, well, you can personally mute everybody yourself, then.

Thomas Rousseau 09:35

Everybody will be just fine to use mic discipline. I believe in everybody at this point, I would like you to please remain absolutely silent verbally unless you are directly called upon to speak. If you heard and understood that say nothing.

Mason TX (Graham Whitson) 09:56

Nothing.

Thomas Rousseau 09:57

Shut up, Mason.

10:01

[Laughter]

Mason TX (Graham Whitson) 10:01

He set me up for that one.

Thomas Rousseau 10:02

Yeah, thank you, Mason. Alright. Jokes aside, leave the jokes at the door. This is an important meeting. I do not call meetings such as this regularly. There are quite a few things I want to go over, there's plenty of good news to go around and you do not want to miss it. We are going to give you all a few more minutes because people are streaming in, all of you who are currently connected should be happy to be here because you are on time, which is early. Remember, on time, early is on time and on time is late. As you file in, please make sure to mute your microphones. Cough cough Grant, cough cough. Please make sure to mute your microphones. It is not enough to be on Push To Talk. I would like to see those red mics in front of everybody's little check mark. Please, Patrick? Thank you, Patrick. Thank you. Yes, I want to see those little red microphones on top right next to everybody's names. It is not enough simply to be on Push To Talk. I want that little reassurance. Because there's a lot to go over, lots of important stuff. And we do not want to stop every five minutes to do the bit. Vincent, Vincent Texas, soon to be whatever. Would you please check how many people are in the channel for me? I assume you can just get a count.

Vincent TX (Kyle Morelli) 11:32

Yeah, one second.

Thomas Rousseau 11:34

Of course.

Vincent TX (Kyle Morelli) 11:40

100 out of 100. So

Thomas Rousseau 11:44

That doesn't seem right.

Vincent TX (Kyle Morelli) 11:47

I mean, that's what it says.

Thomas Rousseau 11:50

100 out of 100 other units. I mean, there's a maximum load of 100?

11:54

It says the server's full. Some of my guys can't get in.

Vincent TX (Kyle Morelli) 11:58

Yeah, let me, let me fix that really quick.

Thomas Rousseau 12:02

Do that please. Yeah, hold on, I assume, I assume we haven't. We haven't had a meeting of this size on the server yet, so, everybody sit tight, me and Vincent are going to go into another meeting room and see about upgrading the server.

12:49

Stop talking in the channel.

12:58

No.

Thomas Rousseau 13:00

Everybody, the meeting might have to be postponed by about five, count 'em, five, minutes. But please stay connected. What's going to happen is we're going to, we're going to fix the server up and get more people in there. Then we are going to, it's going to have to restart, which means all of you will get disconnected and if you do nothing you should automatically reconnect, please do not clog up the text chat. Yes, everybody, we will be restarting the server very soon. So just stay on the line. It should take just a few minutes. If you're in any channels with people saying it's full, tell them to hold their britches tight and we will be ready for them in just a few. So don't worry, this meeting is a go, it's not a huge lengthy discussion. We should be done before the hour is up. So everybody please remain calm. No panicking. No panicking. Do not panic, do not panic. Nothing to panic about, it's a good problem. It's a good problem. It's just a, it's just a minor setting that we have to change so please be ready that. I will mute, if you have any questions, DM them to me and, uh, yeah. Oh, Douglas, please mute your mic when you're able. I want all of you to be aware that I'm going to be making a few appointments. I will be going over some of the appointments and recognitions I originally had planned for a rather lengthy award ceremony the previous weekend but was otherwise unable to find the time for. So we are going to do that. I'm withholding the awards for now because I believe it would be improper to to give those out in any other method but in person, and I, and all of those recognitions or the, the, the awards are still very much in place, they're simply delayed. And I do have plans for finding an appropriate time where those recipients will be able to receive them with an audience, a proper audience. But as circumstances dictate, we will be making a few recognitions and appointments to roles and titles. So be prepared to do your best with applause. Now, don't practice this now. But it's going to be very, very important that we stick to about 10 seconds. So I want everybody, once the, once I call for it, to quickly unmute their, microphone clap for 10 seconds as loudly as you wish.

Vincent TX (Kyle Morelli) 15:43

Let me restart the session before you break it.

Thomas Rousseau 15:46

I will, it'll be fine, it'll be fine. Everybody please reconnect at your earliest convenience, the server should be back online in just a few, take it away, Vincent.

16:01

"N-word, N-word."

16:03

Niggerniggerniggerniggerniggernigger

Thomas Rousseau 16:03

Do not break the discussion conduct guide. Exercise proper conduct at all times. Not the time for your jokes. Who's laughing? William, John, please. Vincent, a lot of people are disconnecting and reconnecting, is this manual, or? Christ. This is ridiculous.

Vincent TX (Kyle Morelli) 17:12

You asked for it, bud.

Thomas Rousseau 17:14

Thank you, everybody, please find your way in. Find your way in, file into the #general chat. I'm trying to move people as best as I can but I do not have the screen tall enough. Everybody please find your way in.

18:21

[Laughter]

Thomas Rousseau 18:21

To find their way into the #general channel. Vincent, if you could go around and register any accounts that are not registered, that would be fantastic. Everybody please tell your friends and your peers that they are free to join the #general channel in the server, and a reminder, do not speak unless you are called upon to speak. Have your microphone muted unless you're called upon to speak, it is not enough to be on Push To Talk. I want to see red mics in front of everybody's name, unless you get a blue one, you don't want to blue one. If, if you have anybody who has not attended yet, but you know they are able to attend or are usually able to attend. Give them a call on Threema or Telegram or go and bang on their door. Anything. But we will be beginning, we will be beginning before [inaudible] three minutes. Hey everybody, whoever is speaking right now, please reminder, Zack, keep your microphone muted at all times. Microphone muted at all times everybody, thank you very much, exercise some discipline here. You did very well over the weekend. We can't throw discipline out the window now. I'm going to begin, I'm going to begin at 8:10 so please send out the final, final calls for people to attend as soon as you can. Vincent, what's our count at right now?

Vincent TX (Kyle Morelli) 20:15

Thomas Rousseau 20:17

Very good, but not good enough. Alright, two more minutes everyone, send out those messages on the server. should have more people at this meeting than we had at the demo, it's much easier to attend this. This is one hour online sitting in the comfort of your own chair. This is not, this is not a travel, a trip across the continent to an unknown location for, for privations and trials many and plenty. All right, I will decide to begin at this very moment. One last, oh, let's just get these last few people in. All right, very good. I'm going to now begin the meeting formally and forthwith, please everybody keep your microphones muted unless you are specifically called upon to speak. If you understood that, say nothing. Fantastic. So I'd like to start by recapping, if only briefly, and a large overview, which will of course miss many of the details. Our third national action, I want to highlight the successes and the advanced measures that we employed. And compare it a little bit to our last national, the second national, which occurred almost two years ago now, because it was on the opposite end of the year, although it was within 2020 itself. I often have told people that it was a miracle that our previous national went as well as it did. The planning was sound in general judgment and sentiment. But the logistical capacity for us to organize was far diminished to what you see today. We had issues with timeliness in vans showing up at our vehicle exchange or rally point. I believe we waited for 30 minutes or more for all of our vehicles to show up. While at our other vehicle exchange everyone showed up within the span of 10. We had other issues with our formation being much more likely to rubber band and have gaps. Please, everybody, everybody mute your microphones now.

[Inaudible]

Thomas Rousseau 22:58

Patrick Ohio is not muted. So yes. Where was I? So yeah, the formation was very much diminished. It was much more a mob than a column as we saw. It was a large conglomerate of disorganized men, which nonetheless did everything well. But the progress was there. There were many people we had at that time that did not take the organization seriously, did not take our efforts seriously, and did not take our principles seriously, and none of them are with us today. We have made significant progress, we have made leaps and bounds and whereas last year, our videos got maybe two or 3 million views. This year, there were millions and millions more that saw our banners, our message, our convictions, even if coated in the bile of slander. All that that does is further bring to light that our actions, our shock and awe, people are in dismay and confusion at the site of our disciplined ranks because previously they were under the impression that such was not possible. That is what it means to be a revolutionary, to do that which others claim is impossible, and we did the impossible and we will do the impossible again. There were attacks laid upon us at this event, unlike Independence Day where our march itself was attacked, other logistical matters were attacked at this event, I will not go into detail. They found that our ranks and our columns were too strong and unassailable. So our opposition decided to find further covert, nefarious, slithering slimy means to impair us and we have discovered their methods and countered them. Every thing that they had, all of their earthly willpower, possessions and resources were bent towards the singular motive of stopping us. And it wasn't enough, every single thing they could throw at us thrashed against our will, our brotherhood, like a storm on a stone, there was nothing that they could do to break our spirits and at their very best, they cost us some time and some money, replaceable things, not you men. They did not injure any of us, they did not arrest any of us, no one among us has lost any freedom or any health because of these act, this action, and none of us will. So, I would like to thank all of you for attending this action. And I look forward immensely to seeing you at the organization's fourth national, which of course, will be some great time to come. Now, moving on from that, if you do have any unplanned expenses from the action, travel, other matters which ought not be gone into detail. Please cite such expenses and their sources to me directly in a message and I will discuss that matter with you and make sure that we can rally round not only with those within our organization, but some trusted and courteous individuals without. You would please mute your microphone. Walter North Carolina, mute your microphone right now.

26:56

[Inaudible]

Thomas Rousseau 26:59

Thank you. Again, if you have any citations of unplanned expenses, please direct message me. If you have questions about what that means, please direct message me, I will get to those messages after the meeting. Now, I would like to go into the recognitions and promotions that I originally planned to give after the event. But some unfortunate time delays left us unable to do such so first, among those I would like to call or I would like to begin. Network 2 had long struggled under transient leadership, as dedicated as they may have been in their times and this year, has seen the final rebirth of stability that has been so long awaited by myself and many others... ...under a new structure combining the territory and leadership of former Network 3 and 2, reassign, that number now reassigned to Colorado and Wyoming... ...Network 2 has blossomed and given the great region of south Texas a formidable union of activists befitting of their task. This is no small part due to the man who was chosen by most both myself and his peers to fill the role of Network Director. He has approached the role with a steadfast determination and a courageous yet tempered approach to risk and precaution. It has been most wonderful to see how this activist has transformed his levels of commitment this year and become an exemplar to follow. I hereby recognize James Texas as the director of Network 2, everybody please quickly, unmute your microphone, applaud and then mute it again. Go ahead.

28:39

[Applause]

Thomas Rousseau 28:39

Very good. Alright, thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you, everybody. Everybody mute, everybody mute. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. All right, everybody mute, every single one of you. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Very good. So everybody, please send out your direct messages to James and, and give him your detailed and more personal congratulations. He has worked very hard to deserve this. And he is certainly deserving of this recognition among his peers, please reach out to him. And if you believe you have counsel, advice, words of encouragement to give him during these times, please do so as well. Because he is very much deserving of such and anything that will help him along his way is going to be of great help. Everybody, please make sure to mute your mic. I do not want to blue mic you or else we won't hear your applause. Next. It is a strange thing. So, yes?

James TX 29:37

I just want to say...

Thomas Rousseau 29:39

Yes, yes, go ahead.

James TX 29:40

I could not have done this without Paul Texas, Jason Texas, William Texas. I mean, really every, every member of Network 2 to that we have right now, it, it's still an ongoing process. I will say in particular Paul Texas and Jason Texas, brothers, I love you. Couldn't have done this shit without you and we're gonna continue to kick ass.

Thomas Rousseau 30:02

Fantastic, kick ass indeed, all of you. Next up. Next up, it is a strange thing to see how regions of our continent bereft of appropriate levels of activity and activists for so long... ...can momentarily rise to the challenge and seemingly appear all at once with a shiny new bulwark against decay that is our networks... ...you may think it due to some unseen hand guiding applications or promotions, or happenstance or luck. I know these claims to be false, however, and every instance where in such a meteoric rise has taken place, a trailblazer has lit the flame of principle and charged forward into the darkness. Such determination, such conviction, demands compatriots to follow and they are found inexorably along the way. This activist has applied himself to our organization with a steely commitment, the likes of which is rarely seen. He has shouldered immense burden and approached every single task of necessity with a fanatical desire for completion, to do service to his brothers, his organization and his country. I hereby reassign Network 6 to include regions of the state of Alabama and Florida. And I recognize Christopher Alabama as the Ddirector of Network 6, please applause. All righty, thank you. Thank you. Thank you, everybody, please mute everybody, please mute except for Christopher Alabama, who is here somewhere. And he can give us some some of his thoughts to this, wherever he is. Is he here?

Christopher AL 31:51

I'm right here, Thomas.

Thomas Rousseau 31:53

Let's hear it, Christopher.

Christopher AL 31:57

Yeah, it's truly an honor. And it's funny how you mentioned the trailblazer, blazer comment again, because that was the first thing you said to me at my very first meeting. And I kind of took it to heart. You said we needed a trailblazer. And that's what I did. And granted, we're still, still, we're still working and building down here. But I'm very hopeful for the future. And I'm just happy to be here. Thanks.

Thomas Rousseau 32:25

Thank you all Christopher. Thank you, Christopher. And thank you all. Everybody, please likewise send Christopher messages of encouragement, congratulations and recognition. Many, many of you have had wonderful experiences with him and his work. And of course, those who have helped him in this, remember these are recognitions, not only of oneself, but also his peers and my role in particular. So please find, find time to message Christopher Alabama with messages of encouragement, advice and inspiration because that is what we need. Now, moving on. So I would like at this moment to recognize Oscar Texas as the Network 1 scribe. Oscar has done an excellent job in Network 1's function and ascent to greater levels of cohesion and activity. In recent months, we have been able to consistently connect in large numbers with Networks 2 and 4. And we have been able to reliably contact every member and ensure our quartermaster Austin, who also does a great job is effective in his role with new counsel. I am appointing Oscar Texas as Network 1 scribe. This is a prestigious role in our organization's oldest network. I expect he will do it justice and honor. Everybody, please, a round of applause for Oscar Texas. All right. All right. All right. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Thank you. Thank you, and, cut. So yes, thank you. And now we will move on to, uh, I probe, a question or a recognition for an appointment. Sorry, an appointment for Network 5. So John Utah, John Utah, would you like to quickly make the announcement of the appointment you'll be making?

Jon UT (Cameron Pruitt) 34:14

Yes, yes. So for some time, I've been serving with Floyd. And he's been a, an exemplar and this organization in terms of organizing, as well as being reliable, and as well as, include, when I am unable to attend, he encourages autonomy, and has been an absolutely outstanding activist in every regard. He has helped tremendously with, when it comes to making banners, posters, storing banners, storing posters. Ensuring everyone has the correct equipment, everyone is properly prepared for events. I couldn't think of a better man to appoint to my Network 4 quartermaster than the one and only Floyd Utah.

Thomas Rousseau 35:11

Alright. Alright. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you, and cut, and cut, and cut, and cut. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. All right, moving on from that. Sorry, John didn't signal for applause. So I will make sure to do it next time. So we all applaud in unison, because of course, that is what our boys deserve. Okay. James, you actually have two appointments to make for scribe and quartermaster, do you not?

James TX 35:37

Yes, that is correct.

Thomas Rousseau 35:38

Take it away.

James TX 35:41

All right. So for Network Scribe, there's one activist, I'm sure many of you know him. Some of you may not. This man has put in, he's put in time, he's put in blood, tears, everything. He's dealt with a lot lately over the past couple of years. You know, he's seen the inside of a jail cell. He's seen the inside of a hospital room. But his, his determination has never wavered. And I'm honestly proud to know this man. Jason Texas. I couldn't ask for a better scribe, man.

Thomas Rousseau 36:19

Everybody, please applaud.

36:30

[Applause]

Thomas Rousseau 36:30

Thank you, thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you, everybody, everybody. All right, everybody, please. Marshall, Marshall. Right. Right. Hold on. There we go. All right. Take it away James.

James TX 36:49

For the position of quartermaster is one individual who I have had the privilege of knowing ever since Philadelphia is when I really I think first met him. Maybe before that, but quickly grown to know and cherish this man. Um, I will say he is wise beyond his years. He's very knowledgeable. Great guy. Strong leadership. And I honestly couldn't ask for a better quartermaster. Paul Texas, man, I love you, bro. You're doing a great job.

Thomas Rousseau 37:21

Everybody please applaud.

37:22

[Applause]

Thomas Rousseau 37:30

All right. All right. All right. All right. Settle down. Settle down. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. We're all going to be speaking of things beyond our years, our hearing is going to be quite beyond our years after this meeting. All right, next up. Next up, I would like to take a moment to remember where this journey started for us, all of us, not necessarily with your first revelation of national sovereignty and collective liberty but with something a bit more tactile. Please mute your mic. Whoever that was.

Mason TX (Graham Whitson) 38:01

[Inaudible]

Thomas Rousseau 38:01

Shut up Mason. Shut up. Your first interview with the organization. Hold on, hold on. Someone is echoing. George Texas. Very sad, sad to see you, hate to see, all right. All right. All right. Not necessarily where it started with your first revelation, national sovereignty and collective liberty but something more tactile, your first interview with the organization, you have made, you may have been nervous or confident. Either way, we all did it at some point, perhaps myself being the sole exception here. This is a key moment, a critical step. And we are enormously thankful for those of us that can conduct these matters to protect us all from those malicious or simply unfit, more thankful still, or wait for those who can take charge to coordinate these measures. I hereby appoint Jesse Arkansas to fill the role of interview coordinator. I will work with him closely to ensure our teams are equipped and effective. We wish him luck, everybody, please applaud.

[Applause]

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Settle down. Settle down. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. And yes, again, this the role of interview coordinator is a, is going to be very, very much harder in the, in the coming days and a few weeks. We have, we have added a new marching column itself of fresh interviewees streaming into the server. We have had hundreds of applications coming in. And unlike the previous times where we have had massive influxes, these are people who know what we are, these are people who understand what we're doing here. These are people who have been following us for quite some time, fans of ours, followers, supporters, finally seeing what we're doing, seeing conservatives slander us. And they have decided to take the leap, the next step in realizing their ideals and I want to pass it on for all of you that, remember, vetting is a process which is never completely finished. And it is important that all of us take, take part and take charge in this situation, new members should be treated, treated appropriately, they should be treated with appropriate, appropriate cause for encouragement and information, information education, you know. But we also need to be careful, right, we need to make sure to protect ourselves and the organization's interests, and the organization's interests fall in line both with recruitment but also security. It's a, it's a tough balance to strike. But we're very confident that our interviewers and those in charge of vetting and meeting new intermediates are well on their way to realizing this in a more perfect standard. Next up, every single one of us places promotional material. If you do not please let me know, I need to have a talk with you. You may do it on the weekends or the weekdays, or both, with or without locals, but you do it. It's easy to think that we dump them in the channel and they sprout like flowers on social media of their own volition. But let's not forget the long hours of editing, formatting, classifying and sorting that goes into this gargantuan task. Nor are those who coordinate these efforts beyond our gratitude. I hereby appoint Jesse Colorado to the role of photo coordinator. I will work closely with him to ensure our editors are productive and creative. We wish him luck. Everybody, please applaud.

Thank you, thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you, everybody. Very good, very good. And I do, I did have a number of arrows to deliver at the event. But don't worry, the wax is still sealed on your envelopes. And I still know exactly what I'm going to say. If anything, the delay has only allowed me to further bolster my reasonings for those arrows granted to those six men who will of course, remain unknown at this time. But all I can say is that you will very much want to be there when those words are read aloud in person, you will want to shake that man's hand, you will want to see that ceremony take place. But I can't tell you when or where. So you'll just have to go to everything. Alright, moving on. Moving on. From that very wonderful, wonderful part. I do want to touch back again, on the amount of attention and support we have, we have received on you know, on social media and online and then, you know, during interviews, podcasts and everything, people have been coming out of the woodwork to support us, just as they have to slander us, but to support is more valuable. That is what counts. So please, uh, we do have people working very hard to try to categorize and showcase all of the support we have been receiving in the social media channel at the top of the server list. So um, if, if you check that, if you check that channel, check it again, if you don't check that channel and you don't know what I'm talking about, please go check the #socialmedia, one word, channel. We have people working very hard to make sure that supportive messages directed towards you, yes you, are there. And perhaps if you have, you have interesting comments, people making artwork about us. Anything that you believe should be shared with the organization, the membership at large, something that's inspiring, encouraging, educating, funny even, who knows, right? Please make sure that finds its way to Walter Idaho. So shout out to the #socialmedia channel, moving on. I know during a lot of the, of the event, people were using a lot of various, uh, various applications to keep in touch with each other. You know, there was a lot of Threema and Telegram calls, messages, some little chat rooms going on. Totally fine, because that's what had, had to happen to get everything moving and get everything finished. I totally understand. But now that that is over, I want everybody to be on their best behavior with standardized communications platforms. I want you to go through your Threema chat, your, your uh, your Telegram, your whatever. I don't, I don't know if any of you are talking with the boys on Snapchat, but that too. Go through and delete any messages pertaining to the event. Delete any messages pertaining to any chat rooms, photos, videos, anything at all pertaining to the event. Or any photos you took, any, any discussions you had, any photos you took at camp, go ahead and make sure to scrub all that. Don't worry, we have piles and piles of promotional content taken by our professional camera teams, you do not need to take any of your own. Planning and discussions, provided it's not immensely valuable and needed at this moment, should be scrubbed, deleted, so that there is no digital footprint. If we have any questions on that, you may message me directly. Alright, please give me just a few moments while I catch up on DMs because some of these next things will have questions. Just one moment, please, John, I will be able to get to your matter at a later date. Also, please fix your profile picture. Okay, [inaudible]. Okay, so, as well, we have updated our practices on meeting intermediates, those who have passed an interview online but still have not passed an interview in person. So they are in an intermediate stage. That's why we call them that. I'm not going to go over the changes right now. But if you are someone who is meeting those individuals, I would ask, I would ask that you make sure to message me if you have any questions about that. And I will get to it. If you are a director, you should have it already. And directors and others just make, and others who may practice them, make sure if you are if you're vetting people and you're not in a network, please make sure you can contact your nearest director and see if they would be able to help you. Not only help you digitally online in terms of mentorship and counsel, but also maybe even make the trip over, maybe it aligns, because there's going to be a lot of new guys. And we need to get them all handled, we need to get them all processed timely and safely. So yes. And if you are in a network, remember that only the Network Director plus two other authorized and consistent individuals, can't swap around, are cleared to vet intermediates. And during during non-network meetings, we want to keep it similarly sparse. Make sure that no one is meeting an intermediate unless they are very much equipped to do so, mentally, physically, socially, and informationally. That's a word, right? Speaking of informationally, I would like every single one of you to go and review the information security guide. There was some recent information, information risks that we saw, and they have all been quashed, fully and absolutely. But after that, I thought to myself, I need to go through the information security guide and make some updates based on what we've learned. And I found myself poring over the bullet points and the sections and finding out that by golly gee whiz, it's all there already. I didn't need to add anything all that important. Of course, there might be updates made to it anyways, on the nature of good faith, but the principles therein are laid out. And you, yes you, should go and give it another look. Ask yourself, am I following this guide? Ask myself are my peers following this guide, to Directors, especially, this is incumbent upon you and your responsibilities. The rest of you, it is also incumbent upon you and your responsibilities. Everyone holds everyone accountable. Why is that so, because everyone shares in the risk. We are one column, we are one wall, we are one organization and we are only ever as strong as our weakest shield, we are only ever as far forward as our furthest man, we are a single entity. So everyone's safety is the responsibility of everyone, hold each other accountable. And if you have any questions or beliefs that there is any suspicious activity going on, you bring that to me. At the event, we were able to deliver quite the number, almost two dozen orders made with the print shop. I was not personally overseeing this process. I had a group of others be able to do it. Of course, I was a part of it. Absolutely. But I wasn't able to personally physically see every box I got given out. So it is possible. It is possible and that we are fallible that there might have been some some orders that got mixed up, mismatched, maybe there's some missing items. I don't know, if you received an order at the event and it something seems off about it, maybe was missing posters, for example, I know I went home with more poster sets than I was thinking I would. Please message me directly and I will make sure to send out those extra items to you. Also make sure to give me your, your order number. Of course we love the honor system. But don't come to me and say that I didn't give you an extra $500 worth of the promat because I'm going to need to check that. So, so please double check your order numbers if you received an order, if there is any outlying unrequited stuff you didn't get. In other words, I will make sure that gets to you. In other news, as part of our new enhancements of technological security, because we love our tech team, don't we folks? We will be, soon, very soon in a number of, short number of days, discontinuing the mobile application. Now, this is only the mobile application. So if you use the RocketChat mobile application on your phone, mobilely, then you will no longer be able to do that in a very short number of days, say 72 hours. This is for some security flaws that are present only in the mobile application, we will be doing other means, as this goes on, to ensure that your accessibility and your ease of calm communication in the server as it stands is aided in every way we see fit. But remember, mild inconvenience is of using the server and a browser application on your cell phone is nothing compared to the rather sizable inconvenience of security risk. I hope we all agree on that. So yes, while certain matters might be cumbersome, that is the, that is the burden of our great need for information and communication. Many of you have no idea just how many people need to talk to each other, share vital information, documents, images, etc. to help this organization move along. It is a great and beautiful machine that we have built that turns raw manpower into disciplined ranks. And it requires quite the logistical backbone, all of which we uphold. Moving on, and final notes before we get into the open forum, which is going to be, remember, questions are to be delivered to me in the direct messages and I will answer them here that way, you are not to speak. So we will be moving into forward planning for 2022. I will tell you that, that we have attended the the March for Life events in several cities around the country for many years now, going on four years now. So I hope it's not too much of a security risk to say that we're probably going to do it again this year. If anybody, you know, you know, antifa is out there with memories of goldfish perhaps. So, so, so yes, please, please stay ready. And we might have some more demonstrations coming up in the, in the next month or so. But do not worry too much. Because these are going to be very well planned. And we will be among friends at these events. These people at these, these March For Life Events have really come to support us in the, over the years. And because of the last year's cancellations of these events, we are expecting even larger crowds of supportive individuals who will no doubt have much more likely heard of us and have strong, strong opinions about our efforts, our, in our privations to see the nation free. So please stand by your Directors, your organizers your points of contact for instruction on these events. But nonetheless, if you needed any additional motive to keep yourself fit, in shape, ready and responsive, then there you go. Moving beyond that, we will be planning the rest of our year for 2022. I have a number of fantastic ideas planned and I think all of you will find immense joy and immense gratitude in these events taking place. Of course, in case any of you didn't know, we will be doing something for Independence Day. I don't know where and I frankly, I don't know what. But we will be doing something for Independence Day, I remember speaking to a man for last Independence Day, who did not take the weekend off because he was not sure if we were doing anything. Let there be no doubt we will be doing something on Independence Day or the otherwise nearest weekend. So obviously it's quite early, but plan to be available. And yes, generally, you know, we will have the weekends that you will be asked to be available. So just generally, you know, be prepared, we will move into 2022 with a vengeance, with a steadfast and ferocious vigor to see our accomplishments realized. Our recent action was the culmination of 18 months of labor and improvement, recruitment. And now is the time where it pays off. I want all of you at this time especially to go back and listen to the speeches I gave on the summit of Mount Mitchell and Mount Elbert, the only national speech I know given above 14,000 feet. Please remember and take note of these words with everything that has happened. And also take note with everything that is going to happen. The work that we can do in the next two weeks will either decide whether the last year was made worth it. Or we will spend the next year reliving the same work and trials to do it all over again. And I do love our work but I don't love retreading our grounds. So everybody, be on your best behavior, exercise your best conduct, hold true to your ideals more steadfastly and more stalwartly than you ever, ever have before. We will come into the next year a new brighter organization brimming with an yet unrealized potential that rests within your bones and sleeps within our ranks. Moving on to questions, if you have any questions, we'll do a quick open forum for the next 10 minutes or so. Do you have any questions about anything I have gone over, you may DM them to me. Do not speak, to clarify, just say downloaded application. So to clarify about the discontinuation of the of the mobile app, just the downloaded application? Yes, the website on the phone, the browser, if you actually type in PF3618.bloodandsoil.org into a browser and log in that way, that is the browser, that is completely fine, will be unaffected. And that is the preferred method. This is only the download application where if you download RocketChat off of Google Play, or the Apple store or their website, that is all that is being discontinued. Make sure you have your password figured out. I know I've done a lot of password resets in the past days because we've been updating the server. It's your password, figure it out if you haven't. Alright, any other questions? Jack Arizona, where can we watch the speeches on the mountaintops? Odyssee, Bitchute, and they will be up on the website shortly. We've been a little busy. Any other questions anybody has for me? DM them to me now? Questions, comments, concerns, suggestions, ideas? I'll read them out loud if it is pertinent, or I will just answer the question. I've dumped a lot of information on there. Has the meeting concluded, what about okay, yes, yes, yes, yes. We are cataloguing the unplanned expenses from our recent action. And we will be committing a, a very large effort to ensure that everybody's unplanned expenses are accounted for. So, so yes, please, be at the ready for that if you have online means of payment transferal, or you wish to do the snail mail option, which is old reliable as far as I'm concerned. Um, be ready, and if you have the money to set aside a few dollars here and there, in the coming hours or day, we should have that fundraiser up and running very shortly, uh, tomorrow or the day after. So yes, we will be making sure that everybody who has unplanned expenses as far as the trip, that was not able to account for those themselves, or they do not wish to do so because it is an, a stressful burden, we will be making them, we're making them whole. ETA on the propaganda video from the DC march. Mason?

[Inaudible]

Thomas Rousseau 57:44

Yes, Mason says sometime in the spring of 2027. And if he gets another question about it, he's going to delay it even further.

Johnny MN (Trevor Valescu) 57:52

I will let you guys know when it's getting, uh, I'm getting a really bad, I'm just gonna...

Thomas Rousseau 57:58

Yeah, just you and thank you. Thank you. All right. Are there any methods of activism in 2022 you'd like us to limit or avoid such as like... So when it comes to large scale mural cover ups, make sure that you are always consulting a Director for something like that, or you are consulting me. It is something you know, generally as the activism is, becomes higher in risk or scale, the more you need to, to, to get consultation. Things like billboards, big murals and stuff like that you want to be careful, you want to run it by me. Yes, of course, someone asked, have we made improvements to vehicle exchanges and stuff? Yes, of course, there are outpourings of ideas, which will be put into practices, which will be put into protocols to avoid such, such logistical delays and dilly dally, as it were. Obviously, whenever we are opposed or attacked, or, you know, have any barriers put up against us by our opposition, whether they are carrying badges or not, it has never been enough. And those openings only present themselves once, they didn't stop us before. And they're not going to be able to pull that card again. We will make sure of it. How many people made it to DC for the march itself? I have a incomplete count from the campsite of about 180. But people were still streaming in overnight. So we had a very good turnout, but of course still not enough. Of course, there were, there were more people showing up and there were even some people that showed up in the morning, I think somehow, so, so yes, we had a very good turnout. But remember any, if any of you missed out or if any of you heard of any last minute backouts to the event, give me their names. I would like to speak with them very personally. Adam, I have not emailed that guy but I will. Alright, final call for questions. Final call for questions going once, going twice. Can we order stencils? Yes, you can can order stencils, George you're in Texas so I will sell you something when I, when we next meet, won't be too long. Any questions, comments, concerns, going once, going twice, 10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2. All right. And the final question, John Utah. Yes, you may be excused. One final round of applause for all the guys who made the last event possible and are going to make 2022 possible. Round of applause everybody, and you may go. If you are to stick around, if you are going to stick around for chit chat, everybody, thank you. Thank you. Everybody. All right. Thank you, everybody, please leave the server. If you want to have chit chat and social time. Please do that in smaller groups and pick out some of the meeting rooms please. So we don't just have a nightmare. But otherwise, if you don't have anything important going on or anything to discuss, please vacate the Mumble server. And as always talk safely, and enjoy your time and if you witness any strange activity or anybody breaking any of their, our guides, please let me know forthwith. Thank you all good luck. Good night. And goodbye.
